

Sentinels of Heaven.

Like many others before you you rose to the Bugle call, brothers in arms together as you all began to fall.

In life you walked the battlefield we are so proud of you, in life you gave us happiness our lives we owe to you.
History is written in oh so many ways, we will always tell your story of your glory days.

No amount of praise we can give you for the sacrifice you gave, we can only join together and salute you at your grave.

Sentinels of Heaven
one important task
to welcome future brothers who are about to pass, as the angels look upon you put a smile upon your face as you walk along with Jesus in a kingdom full of grace.
